

Lowest error came from the intervention alone

32 prompts, 512 signed pairs per method. Bars are point estimates and carry no interval, because none was computed for them; only the two preregistered comparisons were tested. The ten shuffled-state controls are shown separately in the state-specificity figure.